PROGRESSIVE POETRY SOCIAL.

Complimentary to Messrs. Ed and Charlie Stephens, brothers of the host. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephens entertained at a "Progressive Poetry" social on last Thursday evening. Fourteen couples occupied the different tables arranged for their reception, which were supplied with "subjects" as a guide to their poetic sentiments. Cards bearing the name of each of the players, and to which was attached a bunch of violets tied with ribbon of the same hue, designated their proper places at the tables, and proved also pretty souvenirs of the occasion. The commingling of poetic thought, though quite beyond one's ability to describe or reproduce, justly merited the praise and laughter it received. Altogether the merry participants seemed never to have enjoyed themselves more. Delicate refreshments were served, while "music enchanting" filled the evening hours. As a pleasant reminder of the occasion to "the absent one," we recall "The Old Maid's Wish." "This she might return to Santiago with Where, if not contented, she could easily slip (Back to the United States we suppose. Perhaps to one of her Hickman beaux. Who, if not 'up to date' on Spanish lingo, is just as 'cute' she would have you know. (Another lass wrote, 'Though marriage a failure' may be, I am willing to try it with you, and—see.

"To be your sweetheart" I've promised, my dear,
And your lovely life, "Rip" will be mine to cherish.
So that you fate, unlike that of "Jones,"
Will be sunshine and happiness rather than gloom;
And though "Fanny Dreams" o'er her slumber play,
You'll awake to find mother-in-law far away.
Yes, dearest "Rip," my (one) aim in life
Is to be your Spanish-American wife.
Where on Cuba's fair shore, hand in hand,
We'll live together, a life of "Love."

THE HUN OF INDUSTRY.

WEST HICKMAN BOOM; ELEVATOR, HANDLE FACTORY, ETC.

Editor Hickman Courier:

No written description of West Hickman have I ever seen, of the several improvements and enterprises we have now. If you can bear with me and allow me a little space in your valuable paper, I would like in my feeble way, to say, that we have the railroad elevator, turn-table, fresh river breeze, and we grow flowers in our own gardens.

Permit me to say that I appreciate the significance of being one of the West Hickman citizens, and I can safely say, "Our souls are stirred with a new life." The life of a grander day is falling upon us; we are thrilled with the consciousness of a growing power and prosperity, though we have no phosphate property, but we have the hum of industry. We have in West Hickman, five classes of people, as follows: Quality, Bob Quality, Commonality, Rubbery and Trash. We are a temperate people except at Xmas times.

We have a representative in the high school, but none in the council, but we are going to do our best to get one in the next city election. If we succeed, we will then look for good side walks. You can find nearly anything here except vacant houses. Every house is occupied by a great many of them having two families in them, and I think they are paying the rent, or they would have to move, as the houses belong to men who are very good collectors. Why don't you moralist fellows who have vacant lots in West Hickman build on them?

The Hickman Handle Company is here to stay, and we have evidence that before long we will have a Crate Factory that will work about thirty men under the shed.

There are a great many people who will be surprised to know the amount of money W. G. Liggett, President of the Hickman Handle Company, pays out to the laboring class of Hickman and surrounding country. He pays out for labor under the log, $35 per day; for timber in the log, $50 per day; and for expenses, $10 per day. He turns out 10,000 handles per day; he will be out from this about $50 per day for hoop material. Besides this extensive business in West Hickman, Mr. Liggett is in the timber business at Paducah, Tenn., Columbia, Tenn., Franklin, Tenn., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Huntsville, Ala. You can see that this enterprise is a great advantage to the working class of the Middle States. He is President of the J. H. Co., the Tennessee Lumber Co., and the Gulf Timber Co. of Columbia, Tenn.

I have shown you the business qualities of W. G. Liggett, now I will please you, yes, gladly do I speak of him as a man. No written memorial can indicate the strong hold he has on the men he has employed, nor portray that peerless personality which gives him his marvelous power among his men. He has a matchless grace of soul that makes him an unending winner of hearts. His translucent mind pulsates with a light of truth. When meeting with the fair sex of the different States and places, his command of language is as boundless as the realm of thought; his ideas as beautiful as pictures in the sky, and his pathos as deep as the well of tears. He moves upon these souls as the divine spirit upon the waters, either lulling them into stony quiet of sympathy, or stilling them to restful quiet of sympathy.

A TENNESSEE REMEDY.

THE SALT CURE.

The efficiency of common salt in stimulating heart action was demonstrated in a remarkable manner by Dr. W. Z. Krumler in Hamilton, Ohio, on Sunday. Dr. Krumler was called to attend Marcus Sauer, 62 years old, who has been long a sufferer from dropsy. He found the patient apparently dead. All symptoms immediately following dissolution, cold extremities, absence of respiration, heart action and pulse were manifest.

Dr. Krumler resolved to try the salt solution as a final resort. At 1:37 p.m. he injected a quantity of warm water, containing 25 per cent of salt in the left arm. In twenty seconds there were signs of a pulse and it was plain that circulation was being revived. In 25 minutes a second hypodermic was administered, this time in the branch of the brachial artery, in the upper left arm in 20 minutes from the second injection respiration was full and normal. Color returned to the patient's face and he recovered consciousness and asked for food. Nourishment in the form of broth was administered and soon after Mr. Sauer took a drink of water, one of the best symptoms of retarded functional activity. Mr. Sauer is improving.

SHE IS A N-GRO

[Fulton Leader.] Dolma Vaughn is a negro. County Judge Caldwell, of Ohio County Saturday said she has colored blood in her and returned her to her colored foster parents Rock Sison and wife.

About a week ago through complaint of citizens of South Fulton, the county judge ordered her brought before the court to determine whether she was white or black. Many claimed she was white girl. She was taken before Judge Caldwell Saturday afternoon for trial. Many witnesses were produced on both sides, but at the conclusion of the trial Judge Caldwell ordered her returned to Sison and wife, saying that evidence had been procured sufficient to show that she had colored blood and rightfully was the adopted daughter of the Fulton negroes.

The mother of the child died about eleven years ago and gave the infant to Rock Sison and wife to raise. They adopted the child and gave her a good education and she is now in the fifth grade and is thirteen years old. She is unusually bright and seems contented and happy with her colored family. Sison is a porter in A. P. Creed's grocery.

Sison and wife returned to Fulton Saturday night with the young girl.

SECURE A HOME

On the Installment Plan.

The 22nd series of the Hickman Building and Loan Association is now commencing and the books open for the entry of new shares. This association has not been in successful operation eleven years, its management prudent, conservative and safe, and loaned more than $100,000 to members during that time. It has matured ten different series, paid off and settled with all in full, and upon maturity, thus proving its solid and substantial basis. This cost to borrowers is now less than at any time in its history. If you want to own your own home, to utilize rents in paying for same, or you need help toward paying for property already purchased, in town or country, anywhere in Fulton County, you are the ones the Association specially solicits to take shares. There are more than a hundred citizens of Fulton county who are now, and who have been members, who have borrowed money from the Association, or placed their money as an investment, they are your countrymen, and acquaintances, talk to them as to the plan and management of this Association. INTERNATIONAL COUGH STOCK FOOD. MEDICINES, COLD CURES, CHILL TONIC.

3 FEEDS FOR 1 CENT.

This is a practical and very important matter to every stockman, or any one owning horses, cattle, sheep or hogs as the health and vigorous condition of each animal depends the great question whether or not you are making or losing money with your live stock. If the animal is run down or the digestion becomes weak then one-third to one-half of the grain eaten is not assimilated and passes through the animal undigested and more than wasted. It is not what an animal eats but what it thoroughly digests that results in vigorous life and increased flesh.

International Stock Food.

Is a perfectly safe food for horses, cattle, sheep and hogs in any condition or any time of life. It is rich in nutriment and has a superior vegetable application. To use INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD only one-half stickman.

"This cash," said he, "won't pay my dues. I've nothing here but ones and TUES."

A bright thought struck him and he knew it was a plan. "The rich Miss Goldbrooks I will WED."

But when he paid his court to her She laughed, but firmly said, "No THUR."

"Alas," said he, "then I must die!" They found his gloves, and coat and hat. The corner upon them SAT.

EUROPE'S QUARREL.

President McKinley's reported desire to withdraw American troops from China in order to avoid entanglement in the almost inevitable international conflict now threatened by the situation will doubtless be encouraged by the sanest public sentiment of the American people.

The United States government would have comparatively so little to gain by participation in what is likely to be the greatest war of the century that it would be folly to remain in a position making such participation imperative. Nor is there any peril of our losing the respect of the world by our withdrawal from the President's favorable attitude toward a policy of retirement from a quarrel which should, in all wisdom, be limited to the European powers.

The girl that stabbed the young man with a hot pin because he kissed her, inflicting a wound from which he died, ought to be punished for her violence. But she ought not to be imprisoned or anything like that. She ought to be sentenced to never again kiss another man as long as she lives.

Prof. J. L. Baker, an eminent musical composer of Kansas City, Mo., has a very large class here, and now pays visits in every week. We have more musical composers in our town than any of its size in Ohio County, all of which speaks very highly of Prof. Baker. He certainly cannot be credited.

THE SALOON SMASHER.

Mrs. Nation in Wichita Jail for Destroying More Bars.

Was Assisted By Three Other Women—Being Arrested by Sheriff's Men and Pulled His Ears.

Wichita, Kan., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation came back to Wichita Monday after her recent incarceration under a smallpox quarantine, and the net result of ten minutes of her work Monday afternoon are two wrecked saloons, the pieces of which are being sold for souvenirs.

Mrs. Nation was assisted by Mrs. Julia Evans, Mrs. Lucy Willott and Mrs. Lydia Muntz, all of the local W. C. T. U. organization. With hatchets concealed under their coats they entered the saloon of James Burns, on Douglas avenue, and did not leave a complete piece of glass or a working slot machine in the place.

All showcases, both for liquors and cigars, as well as the plate-glass windows and doors, were broken. With lightning speed they ran to John Herig's saloon and had everything in front of the room, including the plate-glass windows, broken when they appeared with a revolver placed in Mrs. Nation's hand and said that she would blow out her brains if she did not do it.

Chief of Police Coulton discharged the prisoners after they reached the jail and is heartily commending the citizens. They made him a promise not to wreck any more saloons before next Tuesday.

Mrs. Nation caused a new sensation Monday night by slapping Sheriff Simmons on the face, taking hold of his ears and giving him a rough handling generally. Mrs. Nation was at the Union station, in the act of buying a ticket to a neighboring town, when the sheriff pulled at her sleeve, saying: "You are my prisoner, madame."

Mrs. Nation turned her face about and, seeing Sheriff Simmons, gave him a violent slap across the face. She followed this up by taking hold of his ears with her two hands and wringing them viciously.

The Union station was full of women, who began screaming, and tremendous excitement followed as the sheriff, who is a very small man, struggled with his powerful captives.

A policeman came to the rescue, and, with the aid of some bystanders, they succeeded in picking up the woman in their arms and placing her in a cab which was driven to the county jail. She insisted on being placed in the private room for women, but Sheriff Simmons put her in a cell in the steel room, where she began to pray and sing hymns.

QUEEN VICTORIA DYING

The Bishop of Winchester Said the Prayer for a Dying Person at Her Bedside.

SHE RECEIVED A PARALYTIC STROKE.

Her Majesty's Physicians Are Resorting to Moderate Applications of Stimulants to Prolong Life.

Victoria's Rally Attempted on One More Than Her Medical Attendants—However, They Build No False Hopes.

Great Britain, Jan. 22.—At 11 a.m. the family was again called to the bed chamber of the queen. The bishop of Winchester said the prayer for a dying person over the queen.

London, Jan. 22.—The Coves correspondent of the Daily Express learns unofficially that the queen has taken nourishment freely since midnight.

An official bulletin issued at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning says: "The queen this morning shows signs of diminishing strength, and her majesty's condition is becoming more serious." (Signed) "Roid, Powell, Earle."

The queen had been ailing several days and was confined to her room. Sunday she received a paralytic stroke, which rendered her, and Sunday night she lay in a comatose condition most of the time.

Another day in the Victoria era, now so rapidly drawing to a close.

MONDAY MORNING ARE NOT CONSIDERED JUSTIFIABLE.

The queen's rally attempt on Monday morning was not considered justifiable. The queen's rally attempt on Monday morning was not considered justifiable. The queen's rally attempt on Monday morning was not considered justifiable.

Despite the favorable attention, the doctors dreaded greatly the possibility of a relapse. When that was safely passed they seemed hopeful of her majesty living at least through another day, although the means of the previous night's relapse kept their anxiety at high tension.

Never has Emperor William arrived at any place in England with so little cheer. No salutes were fired, no cheers were given. The men of the guardship Australia silently manned her sides. The crowd was equally unenthusiastic, the people contenting themselves with baring their heads. It was a gloomy woman rather than the ruler of a great ally.

After lunch at the castle the prince of Wales, Emperor William and the duke of Connaught strode across the grounds and visited the local sailors' club. The bishop of Winchester, who has been at Osborne since Saturday, visited the rectory of Whiphugham. Meanwhile the doctors at Osborne house snatched a few hours of sleep.

London, Jan. 22.—A special dispatch from Coves Monday evening says: "The queen's condition is not improving. The queen's condition is not improving. The queen's condition is not improving."

Wounded as he was, Marvin partially shook off the attack of the party and shot H. Volt in the back and Lewis Hawkins in the arm. Neither was brought to the prison. The final question was not up to its position, but upon agreeing to the senate amendment of 1 to 2 1/2.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Senate—Hon. Matthew S. Quay took the oath of office Thursday evening. The chamber there was a demonstration which amounted to almost an outbreak. During the day session the army reorganization bill was discussed at length. The bill was not up to its position, but upon agreeing to the senate amendment of 1 to 2 1/2.

HER MAJESTY, QUEEN VICTORIA.

passed without any great change in the condition of Queen Victoria. The slight improvement so frequently mentioned in the official bulletins merely indicates a postponement of the inevitable. The end may be a matter of days or only hours, but the members of the royal family, who are now struggling out to the summons from Osborne house, know that the death of her majesty is merely a question of a short time.

EMPEROR FREDERICK.

Serious Illness Prevents Her From Going to Osborne to Meet Her Exalted Mother.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung makes the following announcement: "Duke Ernest Frederick, being seriously ill, is to her very great sorrow, prevented from going to Osborne to meet her exalted mother. The effect of the sad news regarding Queen Victoria upon her eldest daughter has been very unfavorable."

Emperor Augustus Victoria, upon learning of this, had intended to go to Cromberg in order to inquire personally for the mother, but later news from Cromberg was somewhat reassuring, and for the moment she gave up the idea of the trip. However, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Prince and Princess Frederick Charles and the hereditary prince of Sax-Meiningen, who arrived at Cromberg Sunday, will remain with Emperor Frederick for a time. The police in Berlin have been ordered to keep the streets clear of the idea of the trip.

DESPERADO CAPTURED

Marvin Kuhns, Who Has Terrorized Northern Indiana, in Jail.

Kuhns' Brother, Who Was Detained Last Week, Also Arrested—Prisoners Were Positively Identified.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 18.—Marvin Kuhns, who has terrorized Northern Indiana for weeks and boldly defied the officers of two states, by a singular fatality finds himself in the Cass county jail in the very town in which he made such a desperate battle for life and liberty on the afternoon of December 18. Kuhns and his brother, who was released from the Columbus prison shortly after Marvin escaped, were taken after a desperate fight at Greensburg, Ind., two towns five miles south of Otterbein, west of Lafayette. Before the outlaw was overpowered he shot two men and was himself shot three times.

Emboldened by immunity from officers, Kuhns and his brother and a confederate made a team at Plymouth Sunday night and started south. Ex-Sheriff A. E. Marshall and Marshal T. J. Chaney tracked them to Lafayette Wednesday evening, and by telephone neighboring towns located the men at Green Hill, a small village near Otterbein. An Otterbein posse surrounded the house and rushed in at midnight. Marvin was awake, and seized a revolver at his bedside. Before he could fire Elmer Sawyer shot him in the face and the posse closed in. One man jumped from the second-story window and escaped, but his neighbors were overpowered after a struggle in which shots were exchanged.
